FROM THE OFFICE OF JAMES COLBERT, JR.—SUPERINTENDENT

Of Note...

It's hard to believe that we're already approaching Spring Break. This academic year is moving at a rapid pace. I started this week with a meeting of my Executive Leadership Team followed by a meeting with the Leadership Team this past Tuesday. I also met with Mr. Tom Brooks, the Executive Director of the Harris County Juvenile Probation Department on that day. The meeting was informative as I learned more about the Juvenile Justice Alternative Education Programs.

On Wednesday, Human Resources executive director Natasha Truitt and I met with officials from the Texas Association of School Boards (TASB) as they performed a regularly-scheduled review of our organization and compensation structure, ensuring alignment with comparable education entities across the state. Also, I had the pleasure of visiting both Academic and Behavior School-East (during Career Day festivities) and Highpoint East. The ABS-East career day was a well-organized event, with 15 agencies and businesses represented to expose our students to possible future careers. Among the many groups represented were the Texas Department of Safety (DPS), Houston Fire Department (HFD), and Houston Police Department (HPD). It was an impressive event with all students engaged in the process of learning about what is possible for them upon completion of ABS-East. (See page 2.)

Yesterday, I fulfilled my monthly American Leadership Forum responsibility as a member of the 2016-2017 class. As mentioned in previous issues of The Connector, The American Leadership Forum (ALF) is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to join and strengthen diverse leaders to serve the common good. This occurs through a yearlong Fellows Program in which leaders engage in dialogue, explore differences, and build relationships. ALF strengthens its Fellows' capacity to address public issues collaboratively and it also builds a strong leadership network to work for positive change in our community.

Earlier today, I met with representatives from the Association of Recovery Schools. This meeting consistently provides additional enlightenment as we also propose to educate students who are in recovery from substance use disorder. I also visited Academic and Behavior School-West, proudly referred to as Home of the Knights. I am pleased to say that all of our campuses are providing impeccable service to both the students and districts we serve.

This week, in the area of teaching and learning, HCDE hosted the following trainings and workshops: Positive Behavior Management Online; Educator Certification and Professional Advancement Career Choice Recruitment Seminar; Quest for Grants Training Series: Grants for Afterschool—How to Get and Sustain More Funding; Biology EOC: A Closer Look at Interdependence and Environmental Systems; and Structure and Clear Limits. HCDE continues to offer value, opportunity, and service to the learners and educators of Harris County.

Please be reminded that next week, March 13-17, HCDE—along with the 25 Harris County school districts—will be closed for Spring Break. The Department will resume its regular schedule Monday, March 20, 2017. Also, be reminded that there is no regularly scheduled Board Meeting during the month of March. The next Board meeting will be held Tuesday, April 18, 2017.

In closing, I hope you enjoy this issue of The Connector and I hope you have a relaxing weekend. Thanks again for your service to HCDE.

SCENES FROM THE ACADEMIC AND BEHAVIOR SCHOOL-EAST CAREER FAIR 2017

Yesterday, 15 agencies and companies participated in the school's Career Fair event for students in the Adaptive Behavior Program. It was a great day of learning and exploring for the students at ABS-East. The following entities were represented-allowing our students a realistic perspective of the various career paths that are open to them: Texas Department of Public Safety (TDPS), Houston Fire Department (HFD), Houston Police Department (HPD), Everest Institute, ARC Labs, MIAT, Buffalo Wild Wings, Franklin Beauty School, VAST, Stuffed Baked Potato Factory, Edubalicious Treats, 5 Star Catering, Divas Dent, 90.9-KTSU, and Parris Foundation.

Lookabaugh Named Executive Director of Facilities Support Services at HCDE

Gregory Lookabaugh is the new executive director of Harris County Department of Education's Facilities Support Services division. Formerly senior manager of facilities planning, Lookabaugh brings more than 35 years of experience working with educational institutions to his new role at HCDE. His main duties include leading an extensive team of employees as they consult in departmental operational reviews, training, facility design, and construction management assistance, as well as facility maintenance and operations management.

Lookabaugh holds a bachelor's degree in engineering/industrial technology from Lamar University. His many professional accomplishments include serving as a life member of the Texas Association of School Business Officials and as a board member of the Custodial Management Association of Texas. In 2009, Lookabaugh assisted the United States Department of Energy in preparing the Guide to Operating and Maintaining Energy Smart Schools to educate school districts across the nation in energy conservation.

Many conferences and organizations have sought Lookabaugh's expertise in facilities management. He was a keynote speaker at the Ohio Association of School Business Officials Facility Masters Conference in 2016, and he regularly presents at both the annual and midwinter TASBO conferences.

A veteran of the US Navy, he received an honorable discharge in 1981. He lives in Montgomery, Texas.

HCDE Staff Goes Texan for Rodeo

Staff participated in the citywide Go Texan day on March 3. Throughout the city, Houstonians don boots, jeans, hats, and big belts to kick off the rodeo. View photos on SmugMug (password is hcde1889:

Purchasing Co-Op Rolls Out Time-Saving JOC Trades Contract

JOC Trades Rollout on Wednesday, March 8, where they networked with each other and heard a presentation about the intricacies of government purchasing.

“Very useful,” said co-op member Bahman Yazdani, associate director, Energy Systems Laboratory, Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station. Yazdani exchanged

Choice Partners, HCDE’s purchasing cooperative, held an event for Harris County-area businesses and government entities to discuss a new contract that will increase efficiency. Thirty-five members and 16 vendors attended the business cards with a rep from Aggieland Construction, one of the newly-awarded contract holders also present at the event.

The on-call JOC trades contract “lowers overhead cost,” explained Stephen Kendrick, contract compliance specialist, HCDE. He added that it also simplifies the procurement process by allowing member entities to contract directly with the trades specialists they need, rather than going through a larger contractor and sub-contracting for specific needs.

Harris County Department of Education Administrator to Lead Texas Alliance of Black School Educators

Kimberly McLeod, Harris County Department of Education assistant superintendent for Education and Enrichment, was sworn in as president of the Texas Alliance of Black School Educators, Saturday, February 25 during the organization's 32nd annual state conference held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Houston, Texas.

McLeod's ambitions to lead the organization are enriched by her leadership experience. She currently oversees six divisions in her daily professional capacity at HCDE.

As she begins her three-year term, McLeod said that creating momentum and sustainability within an organization of 1,000-plus volunteers will be challenging yet rewarding.

"Our volunteers remain passionate in their drive to support TABSE as the organization continues to empower educators," she said. "As their leader, their enthusiasm is my inspiration."

As McLeod settles into office, her goals are to extend focus on governance and policy, to help local affiliates strengthen their programs for a more local impact and to focus on leadership preparation and development throughout the state. Her term ends February 2020.

TABSE membership is open to anyone who teaches or serves children of African descent and who shares their mission of empowering those leaders with the skills they need to exact their desired outcome.

Univision 45 Tells Student Success Story at AB West

Univision 45 Houston anchor/reporter Rebecca Suarez shared a good news story about student Angelica Garcia, a student at Academic and Behavior School West with visual, auditory and orthopedic challenges. Since being at AB West the past two years, sister Maria Garcia says Angelica is learning to communicate with family and is happy as she begins her school day. As she practices her independence, she is learning sign language and is working in her life skills class to accomplish tasks like matching, sorting, and reading.

Community Relations

In an effort to meet the Board's expectations of me as it relates to this element of performance to:

- Establish and maintain a program of public relations to keep the public well-informed of the activities of the Department; affecting a wholesome and cooperative working relationship between the Department and the community; and to
- Work with other governmental entities and community organizations to meet the needs of students and the community in a coordinated way.
